Funds raised support training for Cognitive Based Compassion Training (CBCT) teachers

We are visitors on this planet. We are here for ninety, a hundred years at the very most. During that period we must try to do something good, something useful with our lives. Try to be at peace with yourself and help others share that peace. If you contribute to other people's happiness, you will find the true goal, the true meaning of life."

~ The Dalai Lama of Tibet

OUR MISSION STATEMENT
Arizona Friends of Tibet is a non-profit organization dedicated to manifesting His Holiness the Dalai Lama’s vision of promoting basic human values as set forth in Tibetan culture, civilization, and ancient Buddhist traditions.

VISION STATEMENT (VALUES)
We support His Holiness the Dalai Lama’s three main commitments as follows:
- Promoting the human values of compassion, forgiveness, tolerance, contentment and self-discipline
- Working for harmony between all religions
- Preserving Tibet’s Buddhist culture of peace and non-violence in the world

We support the non-violent efforts of the Dalai Lama to regain dignity and religious freedom for the Tibetan people

GOALS AND OBJECTIVES
- We support education and health related programs benefitting Tibetans in Tibet, and Tibetan refugee communities.
- We sponsor various community events highlighting Tibetan culture including movies, lectures, teachings and sand mandalas.
- We co-sponsor visits to Tucson by His Holiness Dalai Lama’s (1993 and 2005).
- We have provided initial seed funding for the nation’s first formalized Center for Compassion Studies in Tucson at the University of Arizona.
Dear Friends:

It has been far too long since I have had the pleasure of communicating with you. First, I would like to thank all of you who have so generously responded to our membership campaign. It has been very rewarding to know that the tragic situation of Tibet has not been forgotten in the plethora of horrific events that have occurred over the last few months. For those of you who have not had the opportunity to participate in our membership campaign, I hope you will take a moment to fill in the membership form on the next page and renew your membership dues.

I am happy to say that we are hosting a couple of interesting events in March. First, we have a book signing and reading by a Tibetan author, Tsering Wangmo Dhompa coming up. She is presenting at the Book Fair but also will be doing a reading and book signing for us on Saturday, March 11th, 3:30-5:00 p.m., Room 110, Education North, 1501 E. Speedway Blvd. She was born and raised in exile, in India. Her book, Coming Home to Tibet, talks about her experience of fulfilling her mother’s wish to return to Tibet and how this changed her life. I believe you will find this book extremely interesting and informative.

Second, I am very excited to say that AFoT is hosting a fundraiser to benefit The Center for Compassion Studies, at the U of A on Sunday, March 26th, 4:00 p.m., so please save the date. This will be a symposium featuring a panel discussion with three brilliant speakers, Dr. Lob-sang Rapsay, Dr. Charles Raison, and Dr. Chris Impey, discussing the value of compassion meditation in these difficult times. We will offer delicious finger foods and refreshments. All funds raised go to support training more Cognitive Based Compassion Training (CBCT) teachers. Practicing this form of Compassion Meditation has been scientifically proven to expand the brain’s capacity for experiencing compassion in all aspects of one’s life. For more information about The Center or locations where CBCT is offered, please visit https://compassioncenter.arizona.edu/.

Next October, we will host a trip to visit a Bhutanese Buddhist Temple at the University of Texas, in El Paso. Our friend and guide is Lob-sang Samten, a former Tibetan Monk and Ritual Dance Master for His Holiness the Dalai Lama. We will send out more information on the date for this trip later this spring.

For more about Arizona Friends of Tibet and detailed information about any of these events, please visit our website, http://www.arizonafriendsoftibet.org/.

Looking forward to seeing you all in the near future and thank you once again for your continued and generous support.

Thanks,

Peggy Hitchcock
President, Arizona Friends of Tibet
